GERMAN MARCH INTO RUSSIA STILL CONTINUES

Satisfactory Terms of Peace Must Be Signed Before Cessation of Invasion

The German invasion of Russia continues unimpeded.

Apparently there is to be no cessation in the eastward march of the enemy until the Russian Bolsheviki government entirely slakes the thirst of the Teutons for a "peace which corresponds with our interests" as expressed by the German foreign minister.

Southern Esthonia has been entered by troops from German warships in the Gulf of Riga or from Moon or Oesel Islands lying off the shore and a base has been established from which operations may be carried on against Reval, an important port on the Gulf of Finland; northeast and east of Dvinsk the penetration of the section along railroad lines leading to Petrograd and Smolensk at last accounts had reached more than twelve miles and thence southward to southern Volhynia, the invasion was in progress over wide areas with the Germans taking prisoners and guns, rolling stock and other booty in large quantities. The line over which the Germans are operating from Southern Esthonia to Lutsk, is more than five hundred miles in length.

Scant heed has been taken by the military authorities of Germany of the frantic announcement of a desire on the part of the Bolsheviki government for a peace on Germany's terms. Except for a demand by the German commander at Brest-Litovsk that an authentic copy of the Bolsheviki document of capitulation signed by Lenine and Trotzky be sent to him, no attention has been paid to the expressed desire for a cessation of hostilities.

In the reichstag the German foreign minister has volubly announced his distrust in Russia's pacifist intentions and declared that Germany herself must see to it that peace and order prevail in the occupied regions off her eastern frontier.

As a sop to those of the populace of Germany who are opposed to Germany making further war against Russia however, the foreign minister said Germany still was ready for a peace in the east which would protect German interests. Not alone in Germany but also in Austria-Hungary the recommencement of hostilities is unpopular with the masses, who, tired of the war, had hoped that with the debacle in Russia a general peace was nearer. Prominent newspapers both in Germany and Austria-Hungary evince disappointment over the new phase in the situation and several of the most influential journals desire to know who was responsible for it. The newspapers in the dual monarchy are unanimous against their country making further war against Russia.

Nevertheless for the present at least all seems dark so far as Russia being able to loose herself from the grip of the invader is concerned. Meantime she is still in the throes of civil war and, added to that is another widespread anti-semitic movement to contend with. Swedish advices are to the effect that there has been a return of the old time practice of carrying out massacres against the Jews. Bloody pogroms are declared to have been committed in Lublin, Rashkoff, Tiraspol and other towns.

On the battle fronts no big engagements have been fought altho in Palestine the British operating against the Turks again have pushed forward their lines on a front of fifteen miles east of Jerusalem and secured much desired positions. The advance as to a depth of two miles. On the fronts in France, Belgium and Italy only bombardments and minor infantry operations are in progress. British airmen are continuing their intensive operations against German positions behind the battle lines.

Naval airmen have again bombed submarine bases, airplane camps, docks and other military works of the Germans along the North Sea coast.

Secretary of War Baker in an important announcement says the first American built battle planes are now on their way to France, nearly five months ahead of the original schedule. The despatching of the high powered aircraft, according to Mr. Baker, marks the final overcoming of the many difficulties met with in building up the intricate industry of airplane manufacture in the United Etates.

Fifteen British merchantmen were sunk by mines or submarines last week, according to the weekly statement of the British admiralty. This was a slight decrease over the sinkings of the previous week.

ALIEN FIRMS SEIZED

Manila, P. I., Feb. 20.—Acting on behalf of the custodian of alien enemy property, Governor Harrison today seized nine German and Austrian firms in Manila, naming one British and eight Americans receivers. The provincial branches of these houses were closed and placed in the hands of the constabulary pending action by the receivers.

Archibald Harrison, brother of the governor, is acting as deputy custodian of enemy property.

HUTCHESON ACCEPTS OPEN SHOP PRINCIPLE

Head of Carpenters Union Accedes to Government Demand During War—Settlement Near.

Washington, Feb. 20.—Government officials and heads of the Brotherhood of Carpenters and Joiners failed to come to an arrangement today on the claims of ship yard carpenters, but at the shipping board tonight it was said a settlement was not far off.

Acceptance by William L. Hutcheson, president of the carpenters' organization of the principle of open shop during the war against which he has fought was the most important development at a conference between the carpenters' leaders, members of the shipbuilding adjustment board and General Manager Piez, of the emergency fleet corporation. Hutcheson still refuses to leave to the adjustment board as requested by President Wilson, the question of deciding questions of labor. He has not signed the memorandum signed by seventeen other union heads giving the adjustment board full authority to adjust all differences.

Shipping board officials it is understood will not refuse to leave employment of shipyard carpenters to the department of labor, tho they oppose making an exception of the carpenters. Hutcheson, it is understood has asked further that the carpenters be permitted to name a special representative on the adjustment board. This is not considered advisable by the board because the other trades have no special representation, but are represented as a whole by A. J. Beres of the American Federation of Labor. Further conferences will be held tomorrow.

No details of the explosion were announced.

CONTINUES DEBATE OF RAILROAD BILL

WASHINGTON, Feb. 20—Another session was given by the senate today to discussion of the administration railroad bill with prospects of a final vote before adjournment tomorrow.

Altho speaking in support of the bill in the senate today, Senator Underwood of Alabama, Democrat, declared it "lacks limitation" and was "crudely drafted."

He said he would vote for it until it was amended so as to provide for an indefinite period of government control. The existing law, under which the president took over control of the railroads he asserted was unconstitutional because it did not provide for a "just compensation" for the carriers.

Senator Poindexter of Washington and Senator Sherman of Illinois, Republicans, also discussed the bill, the former urging the substitution of the original draft, placing final rate making power in the hands of the commission. Senator Sherman supported the bill.

PURCHASE OF HORSES IS DISCONTINUED

EAST ST. LOUIS, Ill. Feb. 20.—Because of the lack of shipping space for the transportation of horses to Europe the British government has discontinued the purchase of horses at the stock yards here. For the last year, the British have been buying about 400 horses a week here. French, Italian and Belgian buyers left here a year ago.

About 250,000 horses and mules have been bought by the Allies at the East St. Louis yards since the war began, at a total cost of fifty million dollars.

SEARCH COMES TO AN END

Des Moines, Ia., Feb. 20.—Search for 9 year old Gladys Nitb, alleged to have been kidnapped from a Chicago public school Feb. 13, ended today when the child's father, William F. Nitz, a stock broker found the child in Des Moines with her mother, from whom Nitz was divorced in 1914. Nitz instituted habeas corpus proceedings here to obtain possession of the child.

COAL CONSUMERS TO BE DIVIDED IN FOUR CLASSES

Administration Plans Classification to Reduce Production of the Less Essential Industries.

Washington, Feb. 20.—Division of all industries into four classes to be used as a guide in the distribution of coal is planned by the fuel administration. A board to be named by the secretaries of war and the navy, the shipping board and the fuel administration will classify the industries. Preferential distribution will be enforced by railway embargoes to be declared by Director McAdoo.

The classification will be a definite step in the direction of reducing the production of the less essential industries. In class one will be put consumers who will be supplied first; class four will contain the so called luxuries.

The program outined tonight by Fuel Administrator Garfield calls for division of all consumers into four classes.

Class 1 which would get coal first as contemplated by Dr. Garfield would include consumers put in a preferential list in the fuel administration's closing order of January 17. This list still is receiving preferential treatment but there has been no classification of other consumers. It includes households, ships, railroads, public utilites and public institutions.

Class 2 would include necessary war industries, Class 3, necessary peace industries and Class 4 the so-called makers of luxuries.

There would be no attempt at establishing preferences within any of the classifications and the duty of the preferential board would be to decide between consumers of a given class.

Preferential distribution would be enforced by orders to operators to supply consumers according to classification and by cooperative easures on the part of the railroad administration which assist by embargoes.

Many industries in Class 2 would fall also in Class 3, since a great number of factories are working both on war orders and on contracts for the general public. The preferential board would decide how they should use fuel allotted to them and how much fuel they should be permitted to have. The plan furnishes the first definite move to put American industry on a strictly war basis. The purpose of the new plan will be to disturb the industrial fabric as little as possible and many of the industries engaged in producing materials not considered essential will be converted into munition plants. Most of the industries whose products are not regarded as essential to the prosecution of the war already have agreed to a voluntary curtailment of their coal consumption.

BELIEVES ALLIED LINE WILL WITHSTAND SHOCK

WASHINGTON, Feb. 20.—Secretary Baker in his weekly communique issued today regards the impending German offensive on the western battle line with a note of confidence.

Both the allies and the Germans, he says, after extensive preparations silently and systematically carried on are ready for battle. By massed attacks of shock troops, specially drilled and maneuvered for weeks for the onslaught, Secretary Baker says, in agreement with expert military opinion abroad, the German general staff hopes to smash thru.

But the secretary of war points out that the German high command must realize it will encounter far more different tactical obstacles than any other attacking army has hitherto encountered. Apparently the secretary with much information at his command which cannot be given to the public shares the opionion of the allied experts that the line will withstand any German shock against it.

UNITED MINE WORKERS GIVEN COLD RECEPTION

PEORIA, Ill., Feb. 20.—Delegates to the convention of the United Mine Workers of Illinois shivered in two cold halls here today, too much to be able to transact much business.

Forced to quit the Coliseum this morning because of lack of heat the convention re-assembled in the Globe street armory this afternoon, only to find the same condition prevailing. The delegates stuck to it however, and keeping on their hats and overcoats, continued with the routine before the convention.

W. D. Ryan of Kansas City, former secretary of the organization and now an international officer of the United Mine Workers of America openly voiced criticism from the floor of the convention of the lack of provision made for the comfort of the delegates.

CHICAGO FACES WHEAT FAMINE

CHICAGO, Feb. 20.—Bread which Chicago gets beginning today for the most part will be 20 per cent white corn flour and oatmeal and the city faces a wheat famine within a week unless relief should come from an unexpected source. This information was given out by a large baking company following notice from a Minnesota mill that flour could not be furnished for a week. Most of the bakeries are in the same situation, it is said, due to requirements of the government which must receive immediate attention.

ASKS TO BE ALLOWED PROPER TIME

London, Feb. 20.—It is asserted that on being asked by Roumania that he be allowed the proper time for the formaation of a new Roumanian cabinet, Field Marshal von Mackensan, the German commander in Roumbania replied dictatorily that he expected the cabinet to be farmed within 48 hours and that it was to include no statesman conspicuously hostile toward Germany or Austria.

AGREE ON AMENDMENTS TO ALLAY OPPOSITION

Early Compromise in Senate on War Legislation Appears in Sight.

Washington, Feb. 20.—Early compromise in the senate on legislation for further co-ordination and re-organization of the government's war making agencies appeared in sight tonight as a result of negotiations between Democrats and Repuglican leaders for revision of the Overman bill which would give President Wilson greater freedom of action.

Amendments virtually agreed on promise largely to harmonize differences and allay Republican opposition to secure support in the senate from all sides, except the group of senators unalterably insisting upon the military committee's bill for a war cabinet and munitions director.

President Wilson was said to have no objections to the changes proposed and tomorrow it is expected that the senate judiciary sub-committee headed by Senator Overman will redraft the bill.

As it is proposed to amend the measure the president would not be given any new substantive authority and provisions in the Overman bill which Republicans have regarded as conferring new and too broad powers upon the president are to be eliminated. The amendments, however, would retain the principal provisions authorizing the president to transfer departemnts, bureaus, commissions and other agencies and their personnel as he might deem necessary to effect greater co-ordination and efficiency in prosecuting the war. It is proposed to strike out a clause giving the president power "to employ by executive order any additional agency or agencies and to vest therein the performance of such functions as he may deem apparent, thereby limiting the executive's authority to changes in existing agencies and without power to create any new ones.

Another compormise amendment proposed would allow the president to transfer appropriations made by congress from one federal agency to another, but only for use in connection with the purpose specifically authorized by congress in making the appropriation. Senator Overman said tonight that as the bill is becoming understood opposition is waning and confidently predicted, that with the changes proposed the bill will be reported out probably next week and secure a substantial majority in the senate.

When the measure was first sent to the capitol by the president virtually as a substitute for the war cabinet and munitions minister bills ,there were general predictions that it would die in the committee.

ONLY LARGER STEAMERS USED IN LONG VOYAGES

Shipping Board Directs That No American Ship of Less Than 2500 Tons be Permitted to Clear for Trans-Atlantic Voyage.

Washington, Feb. 20.—The shipping board tonight directed that after Feb. 20 no American steamer of less than 2500 dead weight tons be permitted to clear for a trans-Atlantic voyage or to engage in other long voyage trades.

"This ruling has been adopted," it as announced, "as a measure of consultation and economical use of tonnage since in the board's judgment steamers of small tonnage are not economical and unsafe in the trades in question. Steamers so excluded will be employed in the coastise, West Indies or such appropriate service."

GOVERNOR ADDRESSES PRESS ASSOCIATION

CHICAGO, Feb. 20. — Governor Lowden in an address on "the business world and the business press in the great war" before the conference of the Trade Press Association today said in part:

"There is no man or woman who does not want a speedy peace but it would be false to my duty if I did not voice a sentiment that no matter how long this struggle lasts we will and must remain true to our duty. We must not whisper to ourselves that the war is 3,000 miles away.

"There has never been a war closer to our hearthstones. If this war goes against us all will be lost and I measure my words when I say this. Because when this war ends all the world will be one or the other thing—either under the iron heel of despotism or a world of freedom."

COUNTY FAIRS WILL BE MORE REFINED

Chicago, Feb. 20.—Dancers of the "Hoocy-Coochy" have made their last appearance at Illinois county fairs. This announcement is made today by H. D. Oldham of Urbana, secretary of the Eastern Illinois Grand Fair Circuit, who is attending the convention of the National Outdoor Showman's Association held here. Gambling games and "demon rum" also are taboo, according to Mr. Oldham, who said that fairs henceforth will be more refined and far more instructive

"The farmers have changed and so has publis sentiment," Mr. Oldham added.

FLOUR FAMINE HAS REACHED ACUTE STAGE

Forty Towns in Illinois Have No Flour Asserts State Food Administrator Wheeler.

Chicago, Feb. 20.—Harry A. Wheeler, Illinois food administrator today admitted that the flour famine in this state had reached an acute stage with no prospect of immediate relief. "I could name forty towns in Illinois that have no flour," he said. "The wheat is in the hands of the farmers and as long as congress juggles with proposed increases in the price of wheat so long will the farmers continue to hold their wheat."

Mr. Wheeler also said that complaints have been received from many bakers that they are facing a shutdown and are only running on a day to day supply of flour. One baker declared that the trouble lies in the fact that other grain prices have not been fixed in like proportions to wheat prices. He said that the food administration must fix prices on sub-grains in order to keep them from going higher than wheat which would have a tendency to keep the farmer from growing more wheat. He said instead they would plant corn, rye, barley and other substitutes. The lack of wheat and the increased demand for corn to take its place in human food has brought out the fact that the price of corn meal has been influenced to no little degree by the price of feeds for cattle and hogs, much of which is made from corn. In view of this fact the local food administration has decided to establish a new department to handle the feed situation in its relation to human foodstuffs.

BILL CARRIES SMALLEST AMOUNT IN MANY YEARS

Rivers and Harbors Bill Introduced in House Carries $19,227,000

Washington, Feb. 20.—The rivers and harbors bill, carrying $19,277,000, the smallest amount in years was introduced today in the house.

Only one new project was included and no provision was made for surveys.

Among the largest items are $5,000,000 for continuing work on the Ohio river, $2,200,000 for continuing work in the East River at New York and $1,700,000 for southwest pass at the mouth of the Mississippi. The committee decided citizens of Crescent City, Calif., should be permitted to spend $200,000 on the harbor there with the understanding that the government would complete the work after the war. It is estimated the entire project will cost $490,000. The bill provides $130,000 for connecting Los Angeles and Long Beach, Calif., with a waterway deemed necessary in connection with the shipbuilding program.

ZERO WEATHER IN MIDDLE STATES

CHICAGO, Feb. 20.—With the cold wave from the northwest overspreading practically the entire region between the Rocky and Appalachian Mountains, a line of zero temperatures extends southward to southern Kansas with a minimum of 44 degrees below zero registered at Medicine Hat, Alberta. According to the weather forecast there is no indication of mild temperature in the middle states before the end of the week.

Some of the below zero marks reported are:

Bismarck, N. D., 28; Devils Lake, N. D., 30; Duluth, 22; Escanaba, Mich., 16; Havre, Mont., 36; Marquette, Mich., 16; St. Paul, 16; Winnipeg, 30; Charles City, Ia., 10; Des Moines, 2; Dubuque, 2; Valentine, Neb., 22; Omaha, 10; Sioux City, 12.

RENEWED ACTIVITY AT CAMP GRANT

Rockford, Ill., Feb. 20.—Renewed activity toward training of the three hundred thirty-third field artillery began today, following the arrival of two 4.7 field pieces to replace the three inch pieces in use heretofore. The 4.7's are the type of middle heavy field pieces which are prized by the French gunners and officers and men say they will add materially to the special training of the men.

PASSAGE WOULD UPSET WHEAT AND BREAD PROGRAM

Much Opposition Develops To Bills To Increase Price of Wheat

WASHINGTON, Feb. 20.—The full influence of the administration will be used if necessary to prevent enactment of bills pending in congress to increase the price of wheat. This became known tonight from an authoritative source. Opposition to the measures, another of which was introduced today by Representative Helvering of Kansas, is based on the ground that their passage would upset the entire wheat and bread program of the food administration worked out in great detail, and that President Wilson already has full authority to readjust the price if it is found advisable.

Wheat is selling now on a basis of $2.20 a bushel and the price is maintained by heavy government purchases for the army and navy and for the allies. The food administration has worked out a scale of profits for millers and distributors of flour on this basis and bread is selling at a fixed price.

In enacting the food control law congress placed an arbitrary minimum price of $2 a bushel on next season's crop. This is the price that the bills offered seek to increase. The twenty cent difference between the price of last year's yield and this year's crop was fixed in large measure to draw wheat from the farms before the new crop is marketed.

Already the agitation for a higher price for next season's crop food administration officials say is checking the flow of wheat to the terminals and to the mills and threatens to stop it entirely. There is no power under the food act to force farmers to release their grain and altho the bills in congress provide that the price shall apply only to the new crop there is no way officials say to prevent the seller from mixing in old wheat with the new. Heretofore the food administration has depended solely on the higher price for the last crop to force wheat on the market. If legislation providing higher prices for the new crop is enacted the food administration it is declared will be forced to raise the price on present holdings and in turn will have to raise the price of flour, which would mean immediate increases in bread prices.

Enormous profits, according to officials would go to distributors who now hold about ninety million bushels of wheat and some twenty million barrels of flour. There probably are on the farms about 125,000,000 bushels of wheat left over from the old crop, much of which will have to be held for seeding.

FIFTY-SIX SALOONS ARE ORDERED CLOSED

ROCK ISLAND, Ill., Feb. 20.—It is expected that by the end of the present week 56 of Rock Island's 97 saloons will be closed upon order of the federal department of justice. These 56 saloons are located within a half mile of Rock Island arsenal, at which several hundred soldiers are stationed. It is also proposed to suppress all houses of prostitution found within five miles of the arsenal. The soldiers at the arsenal will not be permitted, after the closing order is made effective, to go outside the half mile limit zone. Among the saloons to be closed is that conducted by A. W. Billburg and claimed to be the longest bar in the world. Three hotel bars are to be closed also.

It has been predicted the kaiser will abdicate Feb. 25—probably meant Feb. 32.

An eastern railroad is reported as serving one-third less food in its restaurants and charging one-third less price. If true it is probably the only case of its kind in the country.

One of the Kaiser's sons, Prince Adelbert of Prussia, is the author of a new book, just issued. Does he tell in his book of the German mothers who have seen their sons sacribced for the Hohenzollern house?

Air planes carrying mails of many to fly across the ocean after the war, from Europe to America, are predicted. In vie of the many seeming impossibilities that have come into every day use, this does not seem improbable.

War time politics must be firmly based on genuine patriotism of the constructive kind. When criticism has to be made of the methods of policies of the party in power it should be sincere.

The Red Cross membership in this country is over twenty three millions. That surely indicates a large degree of public concern. It evinces the willingness of the people to do all that they can to promote the cause of freedom and see that the sick and wounded are given proper attention.

The secretary of the treasury in the exercise of his large power has decided that there will be no assistance given by the natinal government to road making the coming year, or during the war. Highway construction is accordingly given a hard blow. It is likely that it will have the effect of halting this important movement all over the country for years to come.

BACK TO THE LAND

A movement is on foot to induce men to take up scientific food raising on a large scale, a bill having been introduced in congress to establish rural colonies with five acres or more of land to each man, providing expert supervision and agencies for buying supplies and selling products. The scheme seems a good one and may attract men physically disqualified for the army, yet capable of doing a fair day's work in open air as ell as men of younger age. If these colonies are established many will buy directly of them so as to cut out the needless intricacies of the food distributing system.

RED CROSS EXPENDITURES.

What the American Red Cross has done with the millions of dollars intrusted to it by the people of the United States is shown in a statement just issued by national headquarters. Appropriations to date amount to $79,450,727, and cover the period from the time we entered the war last April, until April 30, 1918.

For foreign relief the sum of $44,657,795 has been appropriated and much of it spent as follows: France, $30,519,259; Belgium, $1,999,521; Russia, $751,940; Roumania, $2,617,298; Italy, $3,146,016; Serbia, $871,180; Great Britain, $1,703,642; other foreign countries $2,536,300; for American soldiers who may be taken prisoners $343,627.

As the government supplies nearly everything our soldiers and sailors need, the appropriation for the United States is only $2,612,532. All salaries and administrative expenses are paid out of membership dues so that every penny of the war fund goes to relief.

The great variety of military and civilian relief by the Red Cross may be indicated briefly; canteens that afford food, baths and lodging for soldiers at the front; rest stations and recreation centers for soldiers in transit and at port of arrival at France; care of orphan and destitute children; supplies for 4,000 hospitals; teaching mutilated soldiers new trades; reconstruction of homes and villages; sanitariums for tubercular and other patients; food, clothing, medicine and shelter for adult civilians in distress and many other activities.

Anyone sufficiently interested may obtain a full report, showing in which country and for what purpose every dollar was spent, by applying to the American Red Cross at Washington.

FORTY YEARS OLD.

Women past the forty year mark are being given their place in the industrial sun and daily are disproving the statement that they are incapable of filling important positions. Miss Florence Schee, head of the bureau of employment of the Women's Committee, State Council of Defense, is demonstrating this in Chicago by replacing men and young women in various commercial activities with women past the two score mark. The success with which these women fill the positions is being attested, Miss Schee stated, in the numerous testimonials of employers and the steadily increasing demand for these women.

Miss Schee is specializing in placing women past 40 and untrained in commercial fields. Out of five hundred given employment only 15 have failed to qualify, Miss Schee said.

Testifying to the success of this class of employes in commercial work, is the following letter made pubilc by Miss Schee.

"We find that the women you have recommended are far better than any we have ever had. They are extremely conscientious and they have a sense of loyalty to their work and their employer that one rarely finds among their younger sisters. We will take all we can get."

"I think it is ridiculous to cay that the untrained, unattached woman, who has passed the age of 40, cannot take her place in the industrial world," Miss Schee said. "When this type of woman first began to apply for positions here we asked employeds to take her, if for no other than patriotic reasons. But now we are receiving letters daily in which heads of firms tell us that these women are just as satisfactory and in many cases even more so, than men or younger women. They tell us that they are just as efficient, and more faithful and steady than the others."

The contention that there was no place for untrained women past forty was made recently at a meeting of the employment committee members. It was argued then that youth and training are essential to successful competition under existing conditions.

FEBRUARY.

The second month of this new year is with us, gentle reader, reminding us that winter drear will soon be a seceder. The month itself is rather punk, with misfit brands of weather, with snow and sleet and kindred junk, and winds that shriek together. But let it whoop and yawp and bawl, we won't be greatly worried, for it's the briefest month of all—short horses are soon curried. And when it goes to hit the straw, comes spring, with buds and roses, when we'll no longer need to thaw our frozen knees and noses! So when the rude and raucous blast in maudlin fury chills you, and when the sleet storm, driving past, dismays and almost kills you, remember winter's on the wane, it is his parting flurry; spring's coming, mild and safe and sane, and you should cut out worry. Spring's coming with its birds and bees, and babbling brooks and chiggers, and how we'll welcome things like these, worn out by winter's rigors! Spring's coming with the sounds and scents that soothe the jaded spirit, and I much doubt if there are gents who won't applaud and cheer it.

Y. M. C. A. Notes

At the regular meeting of the Hi Y club held at the Y. M. C. A. Wednesday night Earl Priest, formerly a member of the club, was present and gave a very interesting talk on conditions at the Great Lakes Naval Training station where he is now stationed. Mr. Priest is home on an extended furlough. He stated that the station was made up of three departments, regulars, U. S. marines and naval reserve. One point brought out by Mr. Priest was that the quartermaster's department of the navy and the army are entirely different. In the navy the quartermaster has charge of the signals, of the piloting of the vessels and the like and has nothing whatever to do with the purchase, transportation or handling of supplies.

The breaking up of the Illinois college team will greatly strengthen the local Y. organization as a number of the college players are members of the Y. M. C. A. and eligible to places on the team. It is probable that in the game Saturday night Tomlinton will perform at center, with Hill and Dunscomb forwards. Cully and Hull guards. The Swain brothers and Hembrough may also play. The game which was scheduled with the Speed Boys of Springfield for the 23rd has been postponed to March 9 and will be played in this city. Two very spectacular flights were flown in the Aviation league Wednesday afternoon on the "Y" Aviation field, Towle the Aero Cop was so wide awake that several of the spectators were almost put out of the field for misconduct.

The first flight was very poor from a high altitude standpoint but just the same the spectators were given a thrill a minute as some very near accidents were closely averted.

The second flight was the wonder of the day and was so close that had either machine slowed down on the loops it would have spelled defeat for the pilot.

TAKE "CASCARETS" IF HEADACHY, BILIOUS AND CONSTIPATED
Best for Liver and Bowels, Bad Breath, Bad Colds, Sour Stomach
Get a 10 cent box.
Sick headache, biliousness, coated tongue, head and nose clogged up with a cold—always trace this to torpid liver; delayed, fermenting food in the bowels, or sour, gassy stomach.
Poisonous matter clogged in the intestines, instead of being cast out of the system is re-absorbed into the blood. When this poison reaches the delicate brain tissue it causes congestion and that dull, throbbing, sickening headache.
Cascarets immediately cleanse the stomach, remove the sour, undigested food and foul gases, take the excess bile from the liver and carry out all the constipated waste matter and poisons in the bowels.
A Cascaret tonight will surely straighten you out by morning. They work while you sleep—a 10 cent box from your druggist means your head clear, stomach sweet and your liver and bowels regular for months. —Adv.

It has been predicted the kaiser will abdicate Feb. 25—probably meant Feb. 32.

An eastern railroad is reported as serving one-third less food in its restaurants and charging one-third less price. If true it is probably the only case of its kind in the country.

One of the Kaiser's sons, Prince Adelbert of Prussia, is the author of a new book, just issued. Does he tell in his book of the German mothers who have seen their sons sacrificed for the Hohenzollern house?

Air planes carrying mails of many to fly across the ocean after the war, from Europe to America, are predicted. In vie of the many seeming impossibilities that have come into every day use, this does not seem improbable.

War time politics must be firmly based on genuine patriotism of the constructive kind. When criticism has to be made of the methods of policies of the party in power it should be sincere.

The Red Cross membership in this country is over twenty three millions. That surely indicates a large degree of public concern. It evinces the willingness of the people to do all that they can to promote the cause of freedom and see that the sick and wounded are given proper attention.

The secretary of the treasury in the exercise of his large power has decided that there will be no assistance given by the natinal government to road making the coming year, or during the war. Highway construction is accordingly given a hard blow. It is likely that it will have the effect of halting this important movement all over the country for years to come.

BACK TO THE LAND

A movement is on foot to induce men to take up scientific food raising on a large scale, a bill having been introduced in congress to establish rural colonies with five acres or more of land to each man, providing expert supervision and agencies for buying supplies and selling products. The scheme seems a good one and may attract men physically disqualified for the army, yet capable of doing a fair day's work in open air as ell as men of younger age. If these colonies are established many will buy directly of them so as to cut out the needless intricacies of the food distributing system.

RED CROSS EXPENDITURES.

What the American Red Cross has done with the millions of dollars intrusted to it by the people of the United States is shown in a statement just issued by national headquarters. Appropriations to date amdunt to $79,450,727, and cover the period from the time we entered the war last April, until April 30, 1918.

For foreign relief the sum of $44,657,795 has been appropriated and much of it spent as follows: France, $30,519,259; Belgium, $1,999,521; Russia, $751,940; Roumania, $2,617,298; Italy, $3,146,016; Serbia, $871,180; Great Britain, $1,703,642; other foreign countries $2,536,300; for American soldiers who may be taken prisoners $343,627.

As the government supplies nearly everything our soldiers and sailors need, the appropriation for the United States is only $2,612,532. All salaries and administrative expenses are paid out of membership dues so that every penny of the war fund goes to relief.

The great variety of military and civilian relief by the Red Cross may be indicated briefly; canteens that afford food, baths and lodging for soldiers at the front; rest stations and recreation centers for soldiers in transit and at port of arrival at France; care of orphan and destitute children; supplies for 4,000 hospitals; teaching mutilated soldiers new trades; reconstruction of homes and villages; sanitariums for tubercular and other patients; food, clothing, medicine and shelter for adult civilians in distress and many other activities.

Anyone sufficiently interested may obtain a full report, showing in which country and for what purpose every dollar was spent, by applying to the American Red Cross at Washington.

FORTY YEARS OLD.

Women past the forty year mark are being given their place in the industrial sun and daily are disproving the statement that they are incapable of filling important positions. Miss Florence Schee, head of the bureau of employment of the Women's Committee, State Council of Defense, is demonstrating this in Chicago by replacing men and young women in various commercial activities with women past the two score mark. The success with which these women fill the positions is being attested, Miss Schee stated, in the numerous testimonials of employers and the steadily increasing demand for these women.

Miss Schee is specializing in placing women past 40 and untrained in commercial fields. Out of five hundred given employment only 15 have failed to qualify, Miss Schee said.

Testifying to the success of this class of employes in commercial work, is the following letter made pubilc by Miss Schee.

"We find that the women you have recommended are far better than any we have ever had. They are extremely conscientious and they have a sense of loyalty to their work and their employer that one rarely finds among their younger sisters. We will take all we can get."

"I think it is ridiculous to cay that the untrained, unattached woman, who has passed the age of 40, cannot take her place in the industrial world," Miss Schee said. "When this type of woman first began to apply for positions here we asked employeds to take her, if for no other than patriotic reasons. But now we are receiving letters daily in which heads of firms tell us that these women are just as satisfactory and in many cases even more so, than men or younger women. They tell us that they are just as efficient, and more faithful and steady than the others."

The contention that there was no place for untrained women past forty was made recently at a meeting of the employment committee members. It was argued then that youth and training are essential to successful competition under existing conditions.

FEBRUARY.

The second month of this new year is with us, gentle reader, reminding us that winter drear will soon be a seceder. The month itself is rather punk, with misfit brands of weather, with snow and sleet and kindred junk, and winds that shriek together. But let it whoop and yawp and bawl, we won't be greatly worried, for it's the briefest month of all—short horses are soon curried. And when it goes to hit the straw, comes spring, with buds and roses, when we'll no longer need to thaw our frozen knees and noses! So when the rude and raucous blast in maudlin fury chills you, and when the sleet storm, driving past, dismays and almost kills you, remember winter's on the wane, it is his parting flurry; spring's coming, mild and safe and sane, and you should cut out worry. Spring's coming with its birds and bees, and babbling brooks and chiggers, and how we'll welcome things like these, worn out by winter's rigors! Spring's coming with the sounds and scents that soothe the jaded spirit, and I much doubt if there are gents who won't applaud and cheer it.

Y. M. C. A. Notes

At the regular meeting of the Hi Y club held at the Y. M. C. A. Wednesday night Earl Priest, formerly a member of the club, was present and gave a very interesting talk on conditions at the Great Lakes Naval Training station where he is now stationed. Mr. Priest is home on an extended furlough. He stated that the station was made up of three departments, regulars, U. S. marines and naval reserve. One point brought out by Mr. Priest was that the quartermaster's department of the navy and the army are entirely different. In the navy the quartermaster has charge of the signals, of the piloting of the vessels and the like and has nothing whatever to do with the purchase, transportation or handling of supplies.

The Y. M. C. A. basketball team will play at New Berlin Saturday evening. The breaking up of the Illinois college team will greatly strengthen the local Y. organization as a number of the college players are members of the Y. M. C. A. and eligible to places on the team. It is probable that in the game Saturday night Tomlinton will perform at center, with Hill and Dunscomb forwards. Cully and Hull guards. The Swain brothers and Hembrough may also play. The game which was scheduled with the Speed Boys of Springfield for the 23rd has been postponed to March 9 and will be played in this city. This game with the Springfield team is probably the last basketball game which will be played here this season.

Two very spectacular flights were flown in the Aviation league Wednesday afternoon on the "Y" Aviation field, Towle the Aero Cop was so wide awake that several of the spectators were almost put out of the field for misconduct.

The first flight was very poor from a high altitude standpoint but just the same the spectators were given a thrill a minute as some very near accidents were closely averted.

The second flight was the wonder of the day and was so close that had either machine slowed down on the loops it would have spelled defeat for the pilot.

The standing of the machines at this time is as follows:

ROUTT COLLEGE WON FROM ROUTT HIGH

Defeated Underclassmen in an Exciting Game by Score of 19 to 13—Kenendy Starred for Routt College and Cooney for Routt High

An exciting game of basketball was played at Liberty hall Wednesday evening when Coach Conlon lined up Routt College against Routt High. The underclassmen gave the college a run for their money and tho defeated by a score of 19 to 13 gave a good account of themselves.

Conlon tried Kennedy at center for Routt college and he surprised the coach by the brilliancy of his play. He tossed four field baskets and played such a game that it is probable he may get a chance at the center job in a regular contest. Walsh and Woulfe were the other pointmakers for the college.

For Routt high Cooney who is a regular on the college team played up to his usual form and was the chief point maker for the high school. Rook and Zell also were point scorers. McCarthy took Graubner's place at center in the second half. The score:

DEATHS

Theobald.

Mrs. Anna Elizabeth Theobald passed away at 12:30 o'clock noon Wednesday at the home of her son John, 146 Oak street, after an illness of eight days of pneumonia. Mrs. Theobald was born in Germany eighty four years ago, her maiden name being Frye. She came to this country at an early age with her parents, who located at Cleveland, Ohio. Miss Seiber and Miss Rexroat of the Illinois Conservatory of Music gave musical numbers which were highly appreciated All of the musicans acquitted themselves with rare ability and gave general satisfaction and received hearty applause.

The principal feature of the occasion was the display of choice rugs and a lecture on them by Rev. J. F. Langton. This worthy gentleman has a rare and very choice collection of these articles, now more rare and choice than ever before and his talks are always entertaining and highly instructive and several who heard him yesterday pronounced the effort the best he has made yet and that is nothing derogatory to the reverend gentleman for he was obliged to leave to keep another engagement before he had finished and his good wife took up the address where he left off and went thru with it all right.

Nice refreshments in charge of Mrs. Emma Smith were served at the close of the formal program and a neat sum was realized for the grand and worthy object for which the entertainment was given.

Get a 10 cent box.
Sick headache, biliousness, coated tongue, head and nose clogged up with a cold—always trace this to torpid liver; delayed, fermenting food in the bowels, or sour, gassy stomach.
Poisonous matter clogged in the intestines, instead of being cast out of the system is re-absorbed into the blood. When this poison reaches the delicate brain tissue it causes congestion and that dull, throbbing, sickening headache.
Cascarets immediately cleanse the stomach, remove the sour, undigested food and foul gases, take the excess bile from the liver and carry out all the constipated waste matter and poisons in the bowels.
A Cascaret tonight will surely straighten you out by morning. They work while you sleep—a 10 cent box from your druggist means your head clear, stomach sweet and your liver and bowels regular for months. — Adv.

WILL NOT INTERFERE WITH CHICKEN JOE'S EXECUTION

Illinois Supreme Court Refuses to Stay Sentence Imposed By Will County Circuit Court.

Springfield, Ill., Feb. 20.—The Illinois Supreme Court refused late today to interfere with the execution of "Chicken" Joe Campbell, the negro sentenced by the Will county circuit court to hang for the murder of Mrs. Odette B. Allen, wife of Edmund M. Allen, former warden of the Joliet penitentiary. In affirming the judgment of the trial court, the supreme court fixed the date of execution for April 12 between the hours of 9 a. m. and 4 p. m.

Six reprieves were granted to Campbell the last of which was allowed by Governor Lowden, in order that the condemned man might have his case reviewed by the supreme court.

His appeal when finally taken up was based solely on the ground of insufficiency of the evidence.

Campbell who was confined to Joliet on a sentence for manslaughter was a "house man" in the Allen apartment at the penitentiary and was trusted as Mrs. Allen's personal servant.

The murder of Mrs. Allen occurred early on Sunday morning in June, 1915. Her body, badly charred from fire, apparently started by her slayer, was found in bed when a fire alarm was answered by prison attaches. Her skull was fractured and there was evidence, the supreme court related in its opinion which indicated that Campbell had committed the crime.

ARKANSAS GOVERNOR ADDRESSES INSTITUTE

BLOOMINGTON, Ill., Feb. 20.—Governor Charles H. Brough, of Arkansas, addressed the Illinois State Farmers' Institute in this city tonight. Charles Adkins, director of the state agricultural department, discussed in detail the problem of farm labor during the war, one of the most difficult problems the Illinois farmers have to solve.

The houeshod science department tonight elected Mrs. J. H. McMurray of Lincoln, president and Mrs. Frank Benjamin, Bloomington and Mrs. J. Y. Shamel, Gibson City, vice-presidents.

Iowa showed the greatest increase in resources among country banks, $6,367,000 and in Illinois country banks' resources fell most, regardless of New York, Massachusetts and Pennsylvania the reduction being $14,329,000.

CASE WILL BE GIVEN TO JURY THIS MORNING

CHICAGO, Feb. 20.—The case of Judge James C. Norman of Bloomington, charged with operating a confidence game, will be given to the jury tomorrow morning. Norman, who gained his title when elected to the chancery court some years ago in Hamburg, Ark., is alleged to have given C. B. Pride of Chicago a mortgage on an Arkansas farm as security for $18,000 worth of woolen goods and to have represented that the land was worth $50 an acre.

Pride charges the land was found to beworth only $5 an acre

CHANGE OF VENUE GRANTED.

Springfield, Ill., Feb. 20.—A change of venue was granted today by the Illinois supreme court in the case of Little, county treasurer of Madison county, against the St. Louis Merchants' Bridge company involving an increased assessment of the company's property at Venice.

The high court reversed the decision of Judge Henry B. Eaton and directed that a change of venue be granted on the rehearing of the case. In its opinion the supreme court said:

"The spirit of our laws demands that every case should be fairly and impartially tried and no judge should think of presiding at the trial of a case in which his good faith in so doing is open to such serious question as that presented by the record here."

Judge Eaton was alleged to have had a personal interest in the assessment against the bridge company's property.

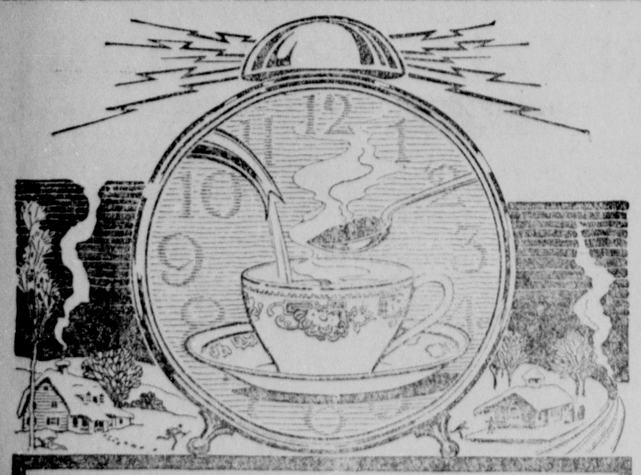

S. P. LONGSHOREMEN AGAIN ON STRIKE

New York, Feb. 20.—Longshoremen of the Southern Pacific Steamship company who today renewed a strike which was under adjustment were informed tonight by the national adjustment commission that while it had not met all demands it had decided on a scale of wages which would give the a substantial increase.

The new scale calls for 48 cetns an hour for regular time, 70 cents for overtime and 90 cents for Sundays, holidays and meal hours.

WILL BEAR MORE INTEREST

Washington, Feb. 20.—Future issues of treasury certificates of indebtedness planned in preparation for the third liberty loan will bear an interest rate of 4½ per cent, or half per cent more than issues of the immediate past. This announcement as made tonight by Secretary McAdoo with the statement that the 500,000,000 block of certificates, closed last week, was subscribed in full only because banks in New York and other big financial centers took more than their share and offset the scanty subscription from the rest of the country. The New York and Kansas City federal reserve districts exceeded their allotments.

DISCUSS ADVANTAGES OF EIGHT HOUR DAY

Railroad Employes Questioned By Operating Officials — Administration Considering Advisibility of Lengthening Work Day In Shops.

Washington, Feb. 20. — Advantages of the eight hour day as described to the railway wage committee by representatives of the employes were questioned today by operating officials who disclosed that representatives of the federal railroad administration wer considering advisibility of lengthening the work day in the shops, in order to hasten repairs.

W. H. Tollerton, general superintendent of motive power for the Chicago, Rock Island & Pacific read a telegram from R. H. Aishton, western regional director which asked:

"Do you believe we are justified in working locomotive men at round houses as many hours as possible?"

Mr. Tollerton said he had replied recommending a ten hour day, provided unions would accept time and a half for tenth hour as is now paid for ninth, instead of exacting penalty for five hours' pay for the tenth hour, according to existing agreements. He declared there was no surplus supply of mechanics and believed mechanics shortly would be used exclusively in essential production to carry the country thru the crisis.

"Do you not believe that a man does as much work in eight hours as in ten," Secretary Lane of the commission, asked the witness, recalling the contention of union leaders that the eight hour day resulted in as much work per hour as the longer shift, because of increased efficiency.

"That has not been our experience," Mr. Tollerton said. "We get as much work out of the last hour a piece work as the first."

Mr. Tollerton said the Rock Island shops wer put on the eight hour basis and found their men were leaving to work for another road which wirked nine hour shifts, with pay for 9½ hours. When the Rock Island instituted the longer day its men began to return but numerous competent foremen returned to subordinate positions in the shops because they could earn more money.

Mr. Tollerton said the Rock Island was taking many engines of eastern roads to repair. He said there was no congestion on western roads except around Chicago where difficulty of transferring cars to eastern lines caused them to back up on the western tracks.

"Then the conditions which caused the federal control were not due to conditions on the western roads?" asked Mr. Lane.

"Not that I know of," Mr. Tollerton replied.

The question of women in railroad work again interested the committee, C. M. Conklin of the New York, New Haven — Hartford said women have been engaged largely to replace men joining the colors and that the eNw Haven has opened a school for teaching women telegraphy and the duties of passenger and freight agents.

RESTAURANTS CURTAIL ON SUGAR IN COFFEE

The U. S. food administration has issued a notice to proprietors of all public eating houses recommending heartily the program of removing all sugar bowls from tables or counters and serving only the quantities required by patrons. The administration says that this method should be followed because it "will effect great saving in sugar, will prevent its deliberate removal by patrons and will prove a desirable economy." Some of the restaurants in Jacksonville have adopted this plan and in serving coffee ask each patron if they desire sugar and then put in the sugar before the coffee is served.

n some restaurants no sugar is given unless the patrons ask for it and then only in limited quantity. Some hotels and restaurants have for months past been serving sugar in large bottles with patent stoppers. One shake of the bottle releases a spoonful of sugar and it is necessary to reverse the bottle before additional sugar can be shaken out. This arrangement in some restaurants has resulted in the less use of sugar.

A copy of the notice sent to all restaurants and cafes was received yesterday by M. F. Dunlap, county food administrator, with the end in view that publicity be given the request.

FEDERAL JUDGE VISITS "BACK OF THE YARDS"

Alschuler Gets First Hand Information of Living Conditions in Chicago Stock Yards District.

Chicago, Feb. 20.—First hand information of living conditions in the district known as "back of the yards" where many packing house employes live was gained today by Federal Judge Alschuler, arbitrator between the packers and the laborers, when he personally made a trip to the district and inspected the homes. He was accompanied only by representatives of the packers and of the employes.

Statements made after the trip by Carl Meyer, representing the packers and Frank Walsh, representing the employes show that for the first time since the investigation was started attorneys for the two sides agree on something.

Both men declared that the buildings in which the laborers live were practically uninhabitable and that fire danger was so great that remedial action should be taken at once.

Mr. Meyer was inclined to blame the conditions on the city, declaring that it should force the landlords to tear down the old buildings or not allow them to be rented, while Mr. Walsh seemed to think the fault lay with the packers.

Twelve homes were visited, five of them selected by the packers, four by the employes and three at random by Judge Alschuler.

"We found one home where an eight year old boy took care of seven brothers and sisters while his mother and father worked," said Mr. Walsh. "The place was filthy and all the children had contracted skin diseases from the filth. In the kitchen were the remains of the mid-day meal—boiled cabbage, coffee and bread. The boy said that was all they ever had at noon and there was no other food on the place.

"Many of the houses are fine in appearance from the outside, giving the impression of great cleanliness and sanitation but inside they are filthy."

Mr. Meyer declared that while much filth was found it was due to the family and not to working conditions.

KEEP LOOKING YOUNG

It's Easy—If You Know Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets

The secret of keeping young is to feel young — to do this you must watch your liver and bowels — there's no need of having a sallow complexion — dark rings under your eyes — pimples — a bilious look in your face — dull eyes with no sparkle. Your doctor will tell you ninety per cent of all sickness comes from inactive bowels and liver.

Dr. Edwards, a well-known physician in Ohio, perfected a vegetable compound mixed with olive oil to act on the liver and bowels, which he gave to his patients for years.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel, are gentle in their action yet always effective. They bring about that exuberance of spirit, that natural buoyancy which should be enjoyed by everyone, by toning up the liver and clearing the system of impurities.

You will know Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets by their olive color. 10c and 25c per box. All druggists.

FOOD ORGANIZATION IN COUNTY COMPLETED

RESPONSIBILITY FOR EACH SECTION OF LAND IS FIXED

Plan of Organization very Comprehensive and Enables County Administrator to Keep in Close Touch with Whole Situation—Farm Survey Blanks Will Give Government Accurate Data with Reference To Agricultural Interests.

One of the duties of the food administrator in each county is to direct the compilation of the farm survey. It is the purpose when this general survey has been completed in all the states to have on record for the uses of the U. S. food administration facts relating to all the farms in the principal farming states. In this county M. F. Dunlap, administrator, has recently sent the blanks to precinct administrators to secure the desired information. The precinct administrators are distributing the blanks among the section administrators one man being held responsible for each 640 acres.

Plan Reaches Each Farm

Last week when Mr. Adams, district food administrator was here he mentioned the fact that Morgan county is the best organized for the purpose of the food administration work of any county in the U. S., Mr. Dunlap suggesting the "section and precinct" organization and the plan had the hearty approval of the state administration and is now to be used in other counties. The fact that Mr. Dunlap recently perfected the county-wide organization is making the work of securing the crop survey very much lighter than would otherwise be possible.

It will not take a great deal of time for the men responsible for the sections to secure the data on all the land under their jurisdiction. This information will then be transmitted to the precinct administrators and by them sent to Mr. Dunlap and then filed in the office of the state food administrator. The names of the several precinct food administrators have been published but the names of the men responsible for the section information have not been previously given. The names of those who are working in this great co-operative organization which is for patriotic purposes are as given below.

Farm Survey Facts

The farm survey blank which each land owner is expected to fill out gives the name of the owner or the tenant and the acreage owned or farmed. The land must be described whether it is timber or waste land, tillable, permanent pasture, orchard and small fruit. Facts are asked relative to the acreage in 1916, 1917 and 1918 for wheat, corn, oats, rye, barley, tame hay, potatoes, garden. Questions are asked with reference to the number of work animals, the beef cattle, dairy cattle, swine, sheep and poultry. The farmer is also to give facts with reference to labor on his farm, as to how many are required for efficient operation, how many of the necessary men are in the family and how many of those are subject to draft.

Then there are blanks to be filled in by the farmer, giving information as to any tractor, silos, limestone and phosphate distributors that there may be on the farm and also the amount of limestone and rock phosphate used. There is also a space provided for answering the question: "Is there anything you can do or the food administration can help you to do to bring your waste land under cultivation next year?"

The names and addresses of the farm administrators are given together with numbers of the sections for which they are responsible:

OLD JACKSONVILLE

War Times Back.

By Ensley Moore

(Member Illinois State Historical Society.)

"When Hardin "gloriously fell," on the field of Buena Vista, Feb. 23, 1847, two Kentucky colonels, relatives of his, also gave their lives, Clay and McKee; and the Kentuckians were, with the Illinoisans and the Indianians, the bravest of the brave.

The thrill of Buena Vista and of the heroes who fell there entered the head and heart and blood of Theodore O'Hara, a Kentuckian, who also took an enviable part in the Mexican War, and, when the remains of the Kentuckians were brought home for honored burial, O'Hara wrote a poem for the occasion, which took on new life after our Civil War, and parts of it have been most often quoted. It is no doubt true that the Soldier-Poet knew, or knew of, John J. Hardin, and our patriot may have been in his mind when O'Hara was writing the great verses. Illinois can well apply a part of the eulogistic words of high praise to her soldiers as well as to the Kentuckians. The first verse of "The Bivouac of the Dead" ran thus:

The muffled drum's sad roll has beat
The soldier's last tattoo!
No more on life's parade shall meet
That brave and fallen few.
On fame's eternal camping ground
Their snowy tents are spread,
And glory guards, with solemn round,
The bivouac of the dead."

1861-1898.

Col. J. A. Watrous, of Wisconsin, was writing daily sketches for the Chicago Times-Herald at the time of the Spanish War, in 1898.

A feature of 1861-5 was the days of fasting and prayer observed by request of President Lincoln. They were wide as the loyal borders.

Col. Watrous reverts to those days in the following words:

"'We have been talking over the war-time days of fasting and prayer.'

During the war they were Illinois girls. Their tearful eyes were evidence that they had been deeply impressed by the old memories. If those two women were so impressed—had been interested in recalling the striking events—why may not the Times-Herald readers be interested? So I reasoned, and then began to question the two women—not girls now, but lovelier. About the third question re-opened the tear-fountains, they stopped answering, and I called on a daughter of one of them to play "When Johnnie comes marching home," to follow with "Dixie." The music produced hysterics, and my enterprise terminated for that occasion. At lunch that day one of them said: "I'll write a description. I simply cannot talk with you about those days." She kept her word. Here is her description. Do you wonder that she could not talk on the subject?"

"I was a girl in my early teens when the war came, but some of my memories of that time are very clear, and there is one of which seldom speak because the very thot of it stirs my heart and to talk of it brings the tears. Never can I forget how I was impressed by the days of fasting and prayer proclaimed by Mr. Lincoln in the dark days of our country's peril. The born and reared in Illinois I was brot up with a New Englander's regard for the Sabbath so solemn, so filled with day to me, but I have never had a Sababth so solemn, so filled with awe as one of those days of fasting and prayer. It was a quiet day, as if Nature herself mourned.

The leaves hung motionless on the trees, and the very sunlight, I remember, impressed me strangely as it came in thro the open door and windows and lay in white patches on the floor. My home was in my guardian's family, and they, with their youngest son in what was called the 'Bloody Nineteenth Illinois,' kept the day sorrowfully. It was as if one lay dead in the house. My guardian did not go to his place of business, but spent the greater part of the day with the big family Bible open before him; and the mother went into her room and closed the door. No work was done about the house. The table was not spread for breakfast nor for dinner. I was told to get something for myself if I wished. But I could not eat; the food seemed to choke me; neither could I play. I looked out to my playhouse under the trees but should sooner have thot of going there on Sunday. So I sat still, looking curiously at my guardian as he turned the leaves of the Bible, or at the door of the room beyond in which I knew my guardian's wife wept and prayed.

Out on the street and over the town the same silence rested. No open stores, no whistles from the mills, no whir of machinery, no playing of children in the yards, nothing but oppressive silence until the church bells called people together for public worship.

All day the silence rested above our home, and as I look back over the years into the room where I sat that day something of the same awe fills my soul, and there is the same old choking feeling in my throat, and I am a girl again, listening battlefields or the prayers to God to care for our soldier boys and to 'save the Union.' "

The Women of 1861

Our women of today are doing a good part for their country—those of Jacksonville and Morgan county fully up with the rest. But the women of this city and region did a great thing in the days when Lincoln prayed and Grant fought.

An old scrap, from an unknown paper, of unmarked date, tells what some of our state women, presumably, did in those battle times of '61 to '65.

The extract reads thus:

"Gifts from patriotic ladies."

"During the war the ladies throughout the North were scarcely less patriotic than men in the ranks. Tho they did not march to the front and face the missiles of death, like the Spartan women, they devoted their lives to the interests, and labored night and day, many of them, for the comfort of the men in the ranks. Many a poor soldier was made happy, receiving blankets and clothing and rejoiced in the delicacies not on the army menu thru the efforts and interest of the generous women at home. The hospitals especially were the frequent recipients of these gifts.

These articles contributed by the self-sacrificing and patriotic women were not unfrequently family keepsakes that partook of the nature of heart offerings upon the altar of the country. They came labeled with sentiments of devotion and love that were in some instances peculiar and interesting.

On a bedquilt was a piece of paper on which was written "my son is in the army. Whoever is made warm by this quilt I have worked on six days and the most of six nights, let him remember his own mother's love."

On a pillow sent to the hospital was inscribed: "this pillow belonged to my little boy, who died resting on it. It is a precious treasure to me but I freely sacrifice it to a soldier."

On a pair of socks was pinned a paper inscribed: "these socks were knit by a little girl five years old."

On a bundle of bandages was written: "this is a poor gift but it is all I have.

I have given my husband and my boy, and only wish I had more to give."

On some eyeshades was written "made by one who is blind. Oh, how I long to see the dear old flag you are fighting for."

"'March on!' The flag was waving and the soldiers marched away:
And he went singing with them, far beyond the Gates of Day,
The bugles pealing gladly and the line with no more gaps—
The bugles singing sweetly in that benison of "Taps."
And fifes were mad and merry, and the drums were laughing, too,
For he marched beside the colors as he led the grand review."

A lady, formerly of Jacksonville, began a poem, "A Picture of Grant," with these words:

"A flowery upland of the Ohio farm;
A boy—one hand upon the plow;
How pure and indescribable the charm
Of boyish beauty, cheek and brow!
O thotful boy, keep hope and energy,
Undying faith and honor's ways,
For the everlasting stars will come to thee—
And dark, inevitable days!"

Proof that Some Women do Avoid Operations

Mrs. Etta Dorion, of Ogdensburg, Wis., says:

"I suffered from female troubles which caused piercing pains like a knife through my back and side. I finally lost all my strength so I had to go to bed. The doctor advised an operation but I would not listen to it. I thought of what I had read about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and tried it. The first bottle brought great relief and six bottles have entirely cured me. All women who have female trouble of any kind should try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound."

How Mrs. Boyd Avoided an Operation.

Canton, Ohio.—"I suffered from a female trouble which caused me much suffering, and two doctors decided that I would have to go through an operation before I could get well.

"My mother, who had been helped by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, advised me to try it before submitting to an operation. It relieved me from my troubles so I can do my house work without any difficulty. I advise any woman who is afflicted with female troubles to give Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a trial and it will do as much for them."—Mrs. MARIE BOYD, 1421 5th St., N. E., Canton, Ohio.

Senreco THE TOOTH PASTE THAT REALLY CLEANS

Mr. Robert Williams,
Galesburg, Mo. December 27th, 1917.

Dear Sir:

You are right when you say in yours of December 24th that Senreco is a remarkably good tooth paste and that it has a strong story to tell, but the difficulty lies in putting that story in such language as will convince the public.

The Senreco story of a medicinal paste that not only cleanses the teeth but also keeps mouth and gums healthy, when put on paper does not sound very different from the story of just any ordinary dentifrice.

For that reason we make every effort to get the people to try Senreco. After that Senreco tells its own story - and fully 90% of them are Senreco users and boosters from then on.

There is a Senreco user in Pittsburgh who has introduced our product into the families of thirty-four of his friends. Enthusiasm? No, not entirely. Simply a case of Senreco making good. It is just as stated above. If they will try Senreco - if they once become acquainted with a real dentifrice - with what a dentifrice can and should be - they are Senreco boosters from that time on.

Your druggist or toilet counters can supply you with Senreco. It comes in large, two ounce tubes and retails at 25¢.

Why not get a tube to-day? Try it. We stand behind every package of Senreco with a money-back guarantee.

Very truly yours,
SENRECO,
CINCINNATI.

GIRLS! HAVE WAVY, THICK, GLOSSY HAIR FREE FROM DANDRUFF

Save Your Hair! Double Its Beauty In a Few Moments — Try This!

If you care for heavy hair, that glistens with beauty and is radiant with life; has an incomparable softness and is fluffy and lustrous, try Danderine.

Just one application doubles the beauty of your hair, besides it immediately dissolves every particle of dandruff; you cannot have nice, heavy, healthy hair if you have dandruff. This destructive scurf robs the hair of its lustre, its strength and its very life, and if not overcome it produces a feverishness and itching of the scalp; the hair roots famish, loosen and die; then the hair falls out fast.

If your hair has been neglected and is thin, faded, dry, scraggy or too oily, get a small bottle of Knowlton's Danderine at any drug store or toilet counter for a few cents; apply a little as directed and ten minutes after you will say this was the best investment you ever made.

We sincerely believe, regardless of everything else advertised that if you desire soft, lustrous, beautiful hair and lots of it—no dandruff—no itching scalp and no more falling hair—you must use Knowlton's Danderine. If eventually—why not now?—Adv.

What's the Difference?

The only difference that shows on the outside is the trade-mark, but that's enough for any wise car-owner.

He knows that it stands for a big difference inside, that it is the mark of Willard Threaded Rubber Insulation, the latest and the greatest improvement in battery construction.

And this means a Still Better Willard Battery, more durable insulation, a more economical battery to own, and unit for unit of electricity, more for his money.

Come in and let us explain more fully the difference between Threaded Rubber Insulation and other kinds. It will pay you.

ESTABLISHES RECORD AT GREAT LAKES SCHOOL

Great Lakes, Ill., Feb. 20.—Seaman Allen N. Miller of the Great Lakes gunners' mate school is believed to have established a record in assembling the Lewis automatic gun recently at the Navy Pageant in Chicago. The 62 parts of the gun were assembled and the gun made ready for action by Miller in two minutes and 38 seconds. Altho no official figures are available for previous performances Gunner McFarland in charge of the school said he believed Miller's time sets a new record.
A mine was assembled at the same show by a crew of student seaman in 55 seconds which is very fast time for this work.

LIGHT RECEIPTS STRENGTHENS CORN

CHICAGO, Feb. 20.—Falling off in receipts tended to put strength today in corn. February closed at the maximum limit allowed, $1.28; but other options eased back a little after mid-day and finished steady $1.27⅝ March and $1.26⅞ May, unchanged to ⅛¢ off compared with 24 hours before. Oats gained 1⅛@¼ to 1⅜¢ net and provisions 2½¢@$1.00.
Comparative scantiness of arrivals of corn appeared to be due to the railroads having cleared a good part of the accumulation on sidetracks and because cold weather interfered with movement of new supplies.
Oats which have as yet been subjected to no normal curb, jumped to the highest known level. Transactions reached a big total. Likelihood that the government's guaranteed price on the 1918 wheat crop would be raised 50 cents a bushel furnished the chief impetus.
Provisions rose with hogs and grain. Arrivals of hogs were much short of the estimates.

DEALINGS CENTER IN WAR STOCKS

NEW YORK, Feb. 20.—Dealings on the stock exchange today once more centered in industrials notably war stocks, shippings and specialties comprising the automobile and oil groups but the trend in these issues was often so conflicting as to defy analysis. Rails reflected, moved mostly fractional limies. U. S. Steel's course was typical of that pursued by affiliated equipments holding slightly above or under final quotations of the previous day until shortly before the close, when prices eased 1 to 2 points all ar ound. Sales 760,000 shares.
The late reaction in industrial was the most explicable from the fact that the trade advices were unusually encouraging.
Total sales (par value) $4,125,000.

Rheumatism's Torturing Pangs Become More Severe Each Day

Wintry Weather Foretells Much Suffering Ahead for the Afflicted.

The little pain demons which cause Rheumatism seem to lie dormant in mild weather, but with the first return of the raw, wintry blasts they break out with renewed fury, and start forth on their joyful tour of torture.

Then you remember how the disease first attacked you. The little pains seemed very slight at first, for Rheumatism is an insidious disease, and creeps up on its victim unawares. You hardly noticed the little twitching pains, for they barely attracted your attention. But they began to become more frequent, and just a little bit more painful and annoying each day.

And then, before you hardly realized it, you found yourself almost bound hand and foot in the grasp of one of the most disabling diseases that afflicts mankind, a full-fledged victim of rheumatism, with its aches and its pains for your constant companion.

And now the real important question with you is how to shake loose from these millions of little pain demons that cause you so much suffering. Your experience has proven to you that no real permanent benefit can be expected from the use of liniments and lotions, for, try as you will, you will never be able to rub the pain away. No externally applied remedy can stop such sharp shooting pains, for they must be reached at their source.

Many forms of Rheumatism originate in a disordered state of the blood, and the logical method of treatment is one that thoroughly purifies the blood and cleanses it of all foreign substances that have infected it. Some very obstinate and painful cases of Rheumatism have yielded to S. S. S., the great vegetable blood purifier, and no case should be considered incurable, just because it is not reached by local remedies applied to the surface.

You should give S. S. S. a thorough trial, and if your Rheumatism comes from a disordered state of the blood, you will be delighted with the results, and soon find yourself on the way back to health. Go to your drug store and get a bottle of S. S. S. today, and begin at once on this splendid treatment. If you wish any medical advice, you can obtain same without cost by writing to Medical Director, Swift Specific Co., 82 Swift Laboratory, Atlanta, Ga.

WAR ACTIVITIES OF OKLAHOMA INDIANS

"Five Civilized Tribes" Are Taking Active Part in Win the War Campaign—Three Thousand in Military Naval Service.

Muskogee, Okla., Feb. 20.—Under the direction of G. E. Parker, superintendent of the Muskogee Indian agency, which conducts the affairs of the "five civilized tribes," Oklahoma Indians are taking an active part in the "win the war" campaign.

The start these so-called "restricted" Indians have made toward buying $1,000,000 worth of war savings stamps is only one of the many activities in which they have made a record.

Following are some of the things the Indians have done.

Three thousand "restricted" Indians are in military or naval service.

The five tribes subscribed $1,790,800 to the first Liberty Loan and $2,540,550 to the second Liberty Loan.

They have donated $8,000 to the Red Cross, $2,250 to the Army Y. M. C. A.$319.80 to war relief work and other miscellaneous movements, making a total of $14,132 for this class of donations.

The area comprising the lands of the five civilized tribes amounted originally to about 19,000,000 acres in eastern Oklahoma. Allotments were given from this average to 101,000 members of the tribes. Formerly all these allotments were under the supervision of the Indian agency here but from time to time restrictions have been removed by law and at this time only 25,000 are "restricted" Indians.

About 10,000 members of the civilized tribes are within the draft age and of these 2,500 are "restricted", according to estimates made at the agency. It is estimated that at least 3,000 Indians from these tribes are at present in service in one branch or another.

SYSTEMATIC WORK AT ARMY REMOUNT STATION

Work of Preparing Horses and Mules for Army Has Been Going on for Months at Camp Travis Station—Only the Best Animals Are Purchased.

San Antonio, Tex., Feb. 20.—The army remount station at Camp Travis, near here, is a many-ringed wild west show that runs ten hours a day, every day in the week and would put to shame the best of the professional exhibitions of horseback riding that tour the country. The work of preparing horses and mules for the army has been going on for months and altho it is among the best systematized of any of the war preparations, little had been said of it. Major Migdalski in charge of the camp is a firm believer in the incompatibility of publicity and progress in military proficiency.

Trains of horses and mules from all section of the country are arriving each week, animals passing into the charge of the trainers, most of them lanky Texans from the cattle country, who have enlisted in the branch of army service for which their years of life on the plains have best fitted them

The recent decision to organize fifteen cavalry regiments caused renewed avtivity at the camp and horses are being broken with speed and regularity

At the remount station, three seperate training schools also are maintained in which the men are taught army packing, horse shoeing and teaming. The horse shoer school last four month, the packers and teamsters two and the graduates air their proficiencies with a pride that rivals the airs of the cadets at Camp Kelly, the aviation training camp nearby.

Army officers exercise great care in their choice of animals and only the best horses and mules are purchased, the government paying top prices for them.

"COMMON LAW CITIZENSHIP" IS SUGGESTION

Omaha, Neb., Feb. 20.—"Common law citizenship," similar to common law marriage is suggested by W. M. Cain, attorney, of Fremont, Neb., in letters to Senator Hitchcock of Nebraska, as a means of awarding justice to thousands of German born residents of the United States who, tho loyal to this government in act and sentiment, are classed as enemy aliens because of failure, thru oversight to complete their naturalization before before the outbreak of the present war.

The suggested plan would amend the naturalization laws so as to enable these aliens to complete their citizenship by producing convincing proof of loyalty to the United States. It is pointed out that many states are partially to blame for the failure of these men to procure final papers, because such states gave them the rights of citizenship, including the elective franchise, upon their filing declarations of intention to become citizens.

TWENTY YEARS AGO

Nobody swatted the fly.
Nobody had appendicitis.
Nobody wore white shoes.
Cream was five cents a pint.
Cantaloupes were mushmelons.
Milk shake was a favorite drink.
Advertisers did not tell the truth.
You never heard of a "tin Lizzie."
Doctors wanted to see your tongue.
The hired girl drew one-fifty a week.
Farmers came to town for their mail.
Nobody "listened in" on a telephone.
Nobody cared for the price of gasoline.
Folks said pneumatic tires were a joke.
The butcher "threw in" a chunk of liver.
Strawstacks were burned instead of baled.
Jules Verne was the only convert to the submarine.
You stuck tubes in your ears to hear a phonograph and it cost a dime.

IT NEVER RAINS BUT IT POURS.

At least that is what William P. Allcott thinks. First measles and mumps served to shut up his company at Camp Sevier in the vicinity of Greenville, South Carolina, and now, just as the boys were enjoying a bit of freedom one of them was so inconsiderate as to come down with an attack of scarlet fever and again the company is quarantined and so anxious are the surgeons that it shall not spread they have taken up the bridges over which the boys would pass out of camp. The precautions are wise but irksome and the earnest hope is that the malady will not spread.

AN ACTIVE ITINERARY

H. H. Bancroft left yesterday afternoon for Monmouth where he is to speak this afternoon before the Warren county teachers' association and this evening to a mass meeting of people under the auspices of the parent-teacher association of the city. After the address he is to leave for Ottawa taking interurbans and railroad trains and various means of transportation and in the morning he is to address the LaSalle county teachers' association and in the afternoon the Livingstone Bankers' Federation. Then he is to make a jump to Oak Park, a suburb of Chicago and in the evening make an address before the George Rogers Chapter of the Daughters of the Revolution. He will have to travel a good part of tonight and make close connections, one of his trains being a freight but it is a local and he hopes to make connections. His journey is in the interest of the state centennial celebration.

MR. ALEXANDER HAS POSSESSION

W. L. Alexander has settled for the George S. Gay stock and has the key to the store and will open the doors for business this morning. He will go right ahead and conduct a first class hardware store and replenish the stock as circumstances demand.

WILL PRESENT SERVICE FLAG

A service flag will be presented at Northminster church next Sunday morning at 10:45. Mrs. A. P. Vasconcellos, who made the flag, will present it, and the pastor will respond in a sermon in keeping with the call of our country. His subject will be, "Food Conservation and Christian Duty." The pastor will point out how we can help our boys and the allies who are fighting for us.

To win this war there must be great self-denial and sacrifice on the part of everyone, in every walk of life. Just think what our "little bit" will amount to when we all act and work together. As an illustration: One slice of bread less than usual a day, and one slice saved—that would not amount to much. But just wait a moment. It is estimated that there are 26,000,000 families in the United States. If each family saved one slice of bread a day by substituting a wheat conserving food that would be 20,000,000 slices; one slice less than usual eaten would be 20,000,000 slices more or 40,000,000. Counting fourteen slices to a loaf, that would mean 2,857,142 loaves—just in one day. But go a little further. Baked in one loaf it would be 400 feet high, 400 wide and 400 long.

Suppose that instead of a slice per family, we would save a slice per person. That would be 100,000,000 slices, or (counting 14 slices to a loaf) 7,142,857 loaves a day, 49,999,999 loaves a week, and 2,607,143,305 loaves a year. At 10 cents a loaf, would be $260,714,330. The total would carry on all the missionary and philanthropic enterprises of the churches on a scale never yet attempted, but greatly needed.

For the saving in the wheat flour which we need for export, translate the 2,607,143,305 loaves of bread into flour at the ratio of 275 loaves of bread to a barrel of flour, and you have as a result of your slice per day per person no less than 9,480,521 barrels of flour.

Placed end to end this would make a line of flour barrels more than 5,000 miles long, or across the continent and up to Alaska. As it takes four and a half bushels of wheat to make a barrel of flour, the slice a day would mean over 42,700,000 bushels of wheat saved. Will you give your slice?

WILL OBSERVE WASHINGTON'S BIRTHDAY

The members of Rev. James Caldwell Chapter D. A. R. will give a Washington's Birthday party Friday evening, February 22, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Julius G. Strawn, 1200 West College avenue. The party is given as a war relief benefit and all members and members elect are cordially invited.

TROCO

Compare Troco With the Best Butter You Can Buy at Any Price

THIS appetizing new product is offered as butter's successor to those who heretofore have used nothing but butter.

It is made by an exclusive process—a process which gives the delicate flavor of gilt-edged creamery butter. The more critical you are, the better you will like Troco.

The makers of Troco specialize on this one product. They have perfected the method which produces the quality which makes Troco not a butter substitute but actually butter's successor.

An Attractive Combination

Troco is churned from the fat extracted from the white meat of coconuts — the same dainty tropic delicacy you use shredded on cake — combined with pasteurized milk.

It is as nutritious as butter and even more digestible. Like butter it is energy food of the highest value.

You will use Troco in place of butter solely for quality — because you rarely find butter so pure and sweet. Your dealer will supply you with a capsule of the vegetable coloring used by butter makers.

But remember, Troco contains no animal oils. And that it is made by a company which makes no animal oil products — only pure, sweet, appetizing Troco.

Remember to Specify TROCO

Ask for Troco by name if you want to enjoy the butter flavor and butter quality which other nut butters lack. Your dealer has it or can order it for you. A 'phone order will bring prompt delivery anywhere.

DR. E. L. CROUCH IS CALLED TO FT. RILEY

Prominent Jacksonville Physician Receives Official Notice from Washington to be Ready to Report for Duty.

Dr. E. L. Crouch, one of the city's most prominent physicians, and known thruout the state as a specialist in mental and nervous diseases has received official notification from Washington of his appointment to Fort Riley where he will be employed by the government in the treatment of nervous diseases among army men. His work will be along the line to which he is adapted and in which he is especially skilled. The commission carries with it the rank of captain. Dr. Crouch some months ago received his commission for government service but not until Tuesday did the notice to report for duty come.

Dr. Crouch has many friends in the city who will regret his absence but who will extend congratulations on the appointment. Dr. Crouch has practiced in Jacksonville for a number of years and later established Maplecrest sanitarium. He later sold this property to the Norbury Sanitarium company. He was also connected with the Jacksonville State Hospital for a number of years.

For the past six months his services have largely been for the government as he was early appointed on the medical staff of the exemption board and has served as an adviser and chairman of the medical board. The members of the exemption board regret to lose his services at this time but do so with the belief that his new commission will open a larger field of endeavor and one in which higher honors await him.

FUNERAL OF MRS. WHITE WILL BE SATURDAY

Deceased Spent Greater Part of Life in Scott and Morgan Counties — Graduated at Ohio College.

Brief mention was made yesterday of the passing of Mrs. James H. White, well known to many of the residents of both Morgan and Scott counties. The end of life came for Mrs. White at 10:30 o'clock Tuesday night at the family residence, 121 Prospect street.

Mrs. White's parents were James and Emily Cheseldine, among the early and most prominent residents of Scott county. The deceased grew to girlhood at the home of her parents and after attending the schools of Winchester became a student at Jacksonville Female academy. Her work here was preparatory to entrance at Mt. Holyoke, Mass., and from that institution she went to the Western College at Oxford, Ohio, graduating there in 1863. The alumnae list of this college contains the names of many women well known in literary and educational work and thru all the mature years of her life Mrs. White maintained her interest in the college and its affairs.

Her marriage occurred to the late James H. White at Winchester, Dec. 9, 1869. They immediately became residents of Kansas City and subsequently for a time lived in St. Louis and then in Danville before coming to Jacksonville, which has for a long period been the family home. Mr. White's death occurred 1907. Early in life Mrs. White became a member of the Baptist church and in this city she has long been identified with Baptist church work. In more recent years she was not always able to attend services with the regularity which had marked her earlier life, but the affairs of the church were always upon her heart.

Mrs. White is survived by one daughter, Miss Laura Cheseldine White, and one son, James H. White of Chicago. One son died in infancy. There are also three grandchildren, Howard Cheseldine, Stuart and Helen Emily White. The deceased was the last member of a family long identified with the best interests of Scott county, a sister, Mrs. F. N. Lathrop, having passed away in October, 1915. The only surviving nephew is J. C. Lathrop of Chicago, and his affection for Mrs. White, especially during the final months of her life, was marked. Mr. Lathrop came often from Chicago to be with Mrs. White and has spent many weeks at the White home during the winter.

Thru faithful years of the most earnest and efficient service in the public schools of this city, it has come to many young people and to those older to know Miss Laura White. From her mother whose first thoughts were of of her home and family, with thoughts of self always secondary, Miss White acquired the fine spirit dominant in her public work. Mother and daughter passed together more than the usual years of intimacy and unvarying devotion is the record of those years.

In this family group, altho without blood relationship, Miss Anna Brown properly belongs for she has given a daughter's love and devotion to Mrs. White for the fourteen years during which she has been a member of the household. The intimacy of years brought Mrs. White and her foster daughter into close relationship and so in this inevitable hour of sorrow the grief in the household is equally shared.

Altho Mrs. White had not been strong for some months past it was only a few days since that realization came to her and members of the family that the end could not be far distant. The clearness of her mental vision was unimpaired and with the memory of well spent years, there was the full knowledge of the ministrations of love and devotion and the certainty of that crowning which lies beyond the border for those who have lived faithfully. So the deceased came to the final hour with calm and confident spirit. It was a great satisfaction to her that during the last ten days of her dife it was possible for her son, James H. White to be constantly with her, as he came from Chicago after receiving the message of her illness.

Funeral services will be held Saturday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the residence, 121 Prospect street, with services in charge of Rev. T. H. Marsh of Decatur, assisted by Rev. A. A. Todd. Burial will be made at Diamond Grove cemetery.

STATE IS WATCHING WATER SUPPLY PLANS

Department of Welfare Ready to Help if Site at Pumping Station is Selected.

That members of the state department of public welfare are thoroly interested in the Jacksonville water situation was indicated when Mayor Rogers and City Attorney Reeve recently visited the office of the department in Springfield. Mr. Thorne, the director, and F. D. Whipp, who has been connected with the work of the department for a number of years past, both expressed their pleasure that Jacksonville is now giving the water supply proposal most serious consideration. Mr. Thorne said the matter of furnishing a part of the site for one of the proposed impounding reservoirs would at once be taken up with Attorney General Brundage with the end in view of providing the legal way of making a transfer of the land later on if Jacksonville desires it. The state owns about 60 acres of land adjoining the south pumping station and if that site is chosen for reservoir purposes probably 30 acres of the state land would be needed.

Mr. Thorne and Mr. Whipp both indicated that the state department is anxiously watching the water supply plans here with the firm belief that something will be done for securing a certain supply and thus avoiding any possibility of repetition of the dangerous days thru which the state institutions have recently passed.

RED CROSS BENEFIT AT ACADEMY HALL

Last evening the young ladies of the Gamma Delta society of Illinois College gave a fine entertainment in Academy hall for the benefit of the Red Cross. In theatrical parlance they "played to capacity" as all seats were occupied and many stood. The principal feature of the occasion was a series of war tableaux in which the humorous and the grave were happily mingled and the scenes were most capably costumed, arranged and presented. Accompanied on the piano by Mrs. Bullard, Mrs. Helen Brown Read sang in her usual fine and highly accomplished manner and Miss Lillian Kennedy favored the audience with a reading which was excellent. A goodly sum was secured for the cause.

A gentleman who pays much attention to meteorlogical matters remarked yesterday that ever since the election of President Wilson the country has had extreme weather. Going back to the summer of 1916 all will recall the extreme heat under which all sweltered while the summer of 1917 didn't have enough seasonable weather to ripen a large part of the corn crop. The severe and long continued weather of the present winter will be long to be remembered as one extremely unusual. Of course the president has lots of trouble and probably will not be charged with responsibility for the bad weather.

BEEN VISITING THE SOLDIERS

Mrs. Bessie Woods, manager of the Douglas hotel, has returned from a visit with Mr. and Mrs. Johnson at Camp Taylor, near Louisville, Ky. While there she saw a good many Morgan county boys and all of them are in fine spirits and well cared for. She says the best of feeling prevails and the city people are most kind to the soldiers. They have provided club rooms, have dances twice a week for them and in every way try to make life pleasant. The boys are fast becoming drilled and are anxious to get a whack at the kaiser before the war is over.

S. H. Stevenson of Springfield was a local business visitor Wednesday.

DAILY ARRIVALS OF LADIES' NEW SPRING WEARING APPAREL AND MILLINERY, AT HERMAN'S.

A REMARKABLE FAMILY RECORD

Homer Paschall who is now a corporal in the 124th Marine Gun Battalion stationed near Houston, Texas, is home for a visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Paschall of the west part of the county. The young man is quite well and gives a good account of affairs in his command. He says the men are ready to go after the kaiser as soon as they get the word.

The young man has a record which it would surely be hard to equal. His great, great grandfather, James Jordan, was a soldier in the revolution; his great great uncle, John Jordan, was in Daniel Boone's company in the war of 1812; his maternal grandfather, W. H. Jordan of this city, was a member of the famous Missouri cavalry company from this county and he had in the Civil War, besides his grandfather Jordan six uncles, Henry Jordan, Hardin Jordan, H. P. Grund, O. H. Harpham, T. P. Craig and Thomas Paschall.

If any one can equal this record the Journal would be glad to have the facts.

BACK FROM STATE MEETING

Cost of production, co-operation, standardization, creamery butter legislation were some of the topics discussed. The butter manufacturers are taking heed of their responsibilities in the time of the great conflict and will be heard from in due season.
